Express Application
More flexibility for your recruiting process

Many job seekers abandon the completion of an online application without results - often after just a few minutes. With the Express Application, you simplify the application process for candidates and increase your recruiting success.

Surveys show: Applicants want it fast and easy.

71 %   ... of the candidates surveyed abandon the application process if it takes longer than 15 minutes.

You can select your preferred application form for every job advert in the JobDesigner: Standard application (with CV) and Express application (without CV).

Advantages of the Express Application (without CV)

✓ quick application process from any device anywhere (CV and cover letter are not required)

✓ overview of the key information: current position, work experience, possible start date and salary expectations

You get more applications and potential applicants in a short time.

With the Express Application, you make things easier for yourself and your applicants. Easy handling and skipping several time-consuming steps ensure decreasing dropout rates and a significantly increased applicant rate.

The express application is suitable for positions...

- that you need to fill quickly

- for which you don't require a complete CV

- for which you would like to get an idea of the applicant's personality yourself
